

ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONALE DU DROIT DE LA MER

www.assidmer.net

NEWSLETTER

1/2018

Dear Colleagues,

This newsletter provides information on the principal activities of our Association since beginning of the year.

1. Activities

I should like to announce that the 7th Ordinary Meeting of the AssIDMer will be organized by University of Lisbon, University of Porto and University of Tromsø. The Meeting will be in Lisbon (Portugal) on 20 and 21 September 2018. The topic of the Meeting is “Global Challenges and the Law of the Sea” and its Organizing Committee is composed by Marta Chantal Ribeiro, Fernando Loureiro Bastos and Tore Henriksen.

Please note that information on the activities of the Association is available on its website (<http://www.assidmer.net>), Twitter (<https://twitter.com/AssIDMer>) and Facebook (<https://facebook.com/AssIDMer>). The Association also has a LinkedIn account (<https://www.linkedin.com/in/assidmer>).

2. Daniel Vignes Prize

I am happy to announce that the Council of the Association launches the Call for candidatures for the II edition of the “Daniel Vignes Prize”. The deadline is 15 April 2018. This Call and the Regulations for the award are published on our website.

The prize is intended to reward, under the conditions determined by the Regulations, authors of the best articles on an issue relevant to the International Law of the Sea.

The prize will be awarded during the VII Ordinary Meeting of the Association in Porto. The amount of award will be 700 euro.

3. Membership Fees

I remind you that it is now even more important to contribute financially to the Association to ensure continued improvement of the organization's activities. The amount of the fee is unchanged and remains at 40 euro as in previous years.

In order to ensure the correct operation of the AssIDMer, I ask you to fulfill your membership obligations and pay your annual fees.

To pay your fees and make your donation, a transfer may be made to the below bank account:

Account holder: Giuseppe Cataldi, Andrea Caligiuri
IBAN: IT47B0344214239000023611189
SWIFT: WIDIITMM
Bank: WIDIBA S.p.A.

Do not forget to include your name on the deposit slip.

Do not hesitate to contact the Treasurer, Andrea Caligiuri, for an update on your account with the AssIDMer or for any other question concerning your fees, by contacting her at the following address: info@assidmer.net.

Membership of AssIDMer entitles you to a 30% reduction in the price of the volumes published in the Cahiers de l'Association.

Best regards.

Naples, 2 January 2018

President of the AssIDMer
Prof. Giuseppe Cataldi

ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONALE DU DROIT DE LA MER

www.assidmer.net

DANIEL VIGNES PRIZE

2ND EDITION

The International Association for the Law of the Sea (AssIDMer) confers, every two years, during its Ordinary Meeting, a prize for the best article published in a journal or a collective work, to disseminate knowledge of the international law of the sea. Articles can be written in English, Spanish, French, Italian, and Portuguese.

With the sole exception of members and former members of the Board of the Association, the competition is open to everyone under the age of 40 by the deadline for sending the article.

Applications must be submitted by mail to the Secretary General of the International Association of Law of the Sea, Prof. Nathalie Ros (n.ros@assidmer.net), before 15 April 2018 (deadline for applications). The Secretary-General will inform the applicants of the admissibility of their candidature and communicate the e-mail addresses of the members of the jury awarding the prize to send their articles.

The amount of the prize is 700 Euros. The winners will automatically become members of the Association. The fee is part of the amount of the prize.

The prize will be officially awarded during the VII Ordinary Meeting of the Association in 2018.

Naples, 2 January 2018

President of the AssIDMer
Prof. Giuseppe Cataldi

ASSOCIATION INTERNATIONALE DU DROIT DE LA MER

www.assidmer.net

DANIEL VIGNES PRIZE REGULATION

Article 1

A prize designed to reward under the conditions laid down in this Regulation the authors of the best articles devoted to a specific topic of international law of the sea is hereby founded under the auspices of the International Association of the Law of the Sea, which shall award them.

Article 2

The prizes thus founded shall bear the following name "Daniel Vignes Prize", as a tribute to Daniel Vignes (1924-2011), Founding and Honorary President of the International Association of the Law of the Sea.

Article 3

The amount of the prize shall be determined by the Executive Council of the International Association of the Law of the Sea every two years on the basis of the income of the Special Daniel Vignes Prize Fund.

Article 4

The prize shall be awarded every two years during the Ordinary Meeting of the International Association of the Law of the Sea.

Article 5

Articles must reach the Secretary-General of the International Association of the Law of the Sea. Requirements for nominations may be found on the dedicated page in the Internet site of the Association.

Article 6

The competition is open to any person up to 40 years of age on the date of publication of his/her article, save to Members and former Members of the Council of the Association.

Article 7

Competitors may write their article in any of the following languages: English, Spanish, French, Italian, Portuguese.

Article 8

Articles shall be sent anonymously in three copies. Each dissertation must have two epigraphs, and the same epigraphs shall be written on a closed envelope containing the name, first name, date and place of birth, nationality and address of the author.

Article 9

Articles submitted to the jury must have been previously published.

Article 10

The Executive Council of the Association of the International Law of the Sea shall take such measures as are necessary for setting up the jury. It shall determine the time within which the jury must make its decisions.

Article 11

The jury may divide the prize between two articles which it deems to be of equal value.
The jury shall be free not to award a prize.

Article 12

The jury shall only open the envelopes relating to successful dissertations.

Article 13

The proclamation of the prize winners shall take place at the Ordinary Meeting of the Association of the International Law of the Sea.

Article 14

The results of the competition shall be published in the Internet site of the Association.
The Secretary-General of the Association shall take all other publicity measures which he considers appropriate.

Article 15

The prize winners will automatically become members of the International Association of the Law of the Sea. Fees are part of the prize.

Article 16

If a prize has not been awarded, the Executive Council of the Association shall reserve the right to decide upon the use to be made of the amount not awarded.

Article 17

The list of winners of the Daniel Vignes Prize shall be published in the Internet site of the Association.

Article 18 – Transitional and final provisions

The prize shall be awarded for the first time during the VI Ordinary Conference of the Association of the International Law of the Sea.

The amount of the prize for the first year shall be 700 euro.

For the first edition of the prize, articles must reach the Secretary-General of the Association of the International Law of the Sea not later than 31 December 2015.

Art. 19 – Procedures to Amend the Regulation

The Executive Council of the Association may propose amendments to this Regulation to the Ordinary General Assembly.

Proposed amendments shall be included in the agenda items of the next General Assembly.

Proposed amendments shall be adopted by the Assembly by a majority of two-thirds members present or represented.