

International Conference***
JURISDICTION AND CONTROL AT SEA
Rome 6 June 2013, H 9 -19
National Research Council of Italy- CNR
Aula Marconi – Piazzale Aldo Moro, 7

PROGRAMME

9.00

Welcome address

Luigi Nicolais, President of the Italian National Research Council – CNR, Italy
Giuseppe Palmisano, Director of the Institute for International Legal Studies (ISGI) – CNR, Italy

Presentation of the Action

Gemma Andreone, Chair of the Cost Action Marsafenet, ISGI - CNR, Italy

I SESSION

9.30-13.30

International Practice and Maritime Safety and Security

Chairman: Tullio Treves, Professor of International Law, University of Milan, Former Judge of ITLOS

'Environmental security' at sea, between States enforcement and freedom of navigation

Maria Gavouneli, Professor of International Law, University of Athens, Greece

10.15 - 10.45 COFFEE BREAK

Marine living resources security beyond national jurisdiction

Karen Scott, Professor of International Law, University of Canterbury, New Zealand

The future of the external dimension of Common Fishery Policy

Stefaan Depypere, Director International Affairs and Markets, EU-DG Mare

IUU fishing and the role of FAO

Blaise Kuemlangan - FAO Legal Officer

Individual rights at stake in State enforcement and control at sea

Mariko Kawano, Professor of International Law, Waseda University, Japan

How satellites help jurisdiction and control at sea

Marco Ferrazzani, Head of Legal Department, European Space Agency

Communications

Jurisdiction over civil liability and control at sea, Nikitas E. Hatzimihail, University of Cyprus, Republic of Cyprus

The applicability of the European Convention on human rights to State enforcement and control at sea, Kiara Neri, University of Jean Moulin Lyon 3, France

Final Remarks

Tullio Scovazzi, Professor of International law, Università degli Studi di Milano – Bicocca, Italy

II SESSION

H 14.30 – 19.00

Maritime Security and Safety:

Emerging issues, new instruments and legal gaps

The second session will be devoted to illustrate and discuss the objectives and the expected results of the Marsafenet research activity and to discuss emerging issues, new instruments and legal gaps relating to maritime safety and security, under different perspectives, with the WG leaders of the Action and with the relevant stakeholders, i.e. international organizations, NGOs, government representatives.

Erik J. Molenaar, Leader of WG 1 - Shipping and marine environmental protection

Erik Franckx, Leader of WG 2 - New developments in economic activities at sea

Giuseppe Cataldi, Leader of WG 3 - Maritime international security and border surveillance

Tore Henriksen, Co-Leader of WG 4 - Protection of fragile and semi-enclosed seas

Communications

Nengye Liu, University of Kiel -Germany, Tiago V. Zanella, University of Lisbon - Portugal, Ljupco Sotirovski, University "Goce Delcev" - The Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Martina Bianchi, University of Pisa – Italy, Stefano Dominelli, University of Genova, - Italy, Laura Giuliano, CIESM, Francesco Colloca, IAMC CNR - Italy, Giuseppe Fama', Guardia Costiera - Italy, Karen Scott, University of Canterbury, New Zealand, Greenpeace Italy, Guardia di Finanza, Italy.

Italian barristers (avvocati) attending the Conference will be granted 9 formative credits by the Bar Association of Rome (Ordine degli Avvocati di Roma). To obtain credits, the participation to both sessions is required

*English is the only language of the Conference