

The International Foundation for the Law of the Sea in co-operation with the Association Internationale du Droit de la Mer, the Law of the Sea and Maritime Law Institute of the University of Hamburg and the Bucerius Law School is organizing a Symposium on

Maritime Delimitation

Date: Saturday, 25 September 2004, and Sunday, 26 September 2004
Place: International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS), Hamburg
Chair: Rainer Lagoni and Daniel Vignes

Saturday, 25 September 2004

Morning

9.30 a.m. Opening: President of ITLOS
9.50 a.m. Maritime delimitation in international jurisprudence – an overview
(Laurent Lucchini)
10.40 a.m. Coffee
11.10 a.m. The potential role of international dispute settlement institutions concerning delimitation of the outer limit of the continental shelf (Rüdiger Wolfrum) 12.00 a.m. Provisional measures and interventions in maritime delimitation disputes
(Santiago Torres Bernárdes)
12.45 p.m. Lunch

Afternoon

2.30 p.m. What the Convention and the Tribunal have to offer for maritime delimitation issues (Tullio Treves)
3.15 p.m. The role of the expert in maritime delimitation cases (Martin Pratt)
4.00 p.m. Coffee
4.30 p.m. Preparing for a delimitation case: The practitioner's view (Rodman Bundy)
5.20 p.m. Negotiating maritime delimitation agreements (David Anderson)
6.00 p.m. Buffet Dinner
After dinner speech: Thomas Mensah

Sunday, 26 September 2004

10.00 a.m. Maritime delimitation in complex island situations:
A case study on the Caribbean (Chris Carleton)
10.50 a.m. Maritime delimitation in a semi-enclosed sea: The Adriatic Sea
(Tullio Scovazzi)
11.10 a.m. Maritime delimitation in a semi-enclosed sea: The Adriatic Sea
(Budislav Vukas)
12.00 a.m. Concluding remarks