

Workshop

Safety and security aspects of economic activities at sea

12 March 2013

Melville Room, Main Building, University of Glasgow

Programme

Chair: Professor Malgosia Fitzmaurice, School of Law, Queen Mary University of London

8.45 Registration – tea and coffee

9.15 Welcome and introduction

Dr Irimi Papanicolopulu, School of Law, University of Glasgow and Co-Leader, MARSAFENET WG 2

9.40 The relationship between energy security and environmental security

Professor Nilufer Oral, Faculty of Law, Bilgi University

10.10 The role of EU regulation in furthering a safety/security agenda in fisheries

Professor Ronan Long, School of Law, National University of Ireland Galway

10.40 Coffee Break

11.00 Conflict, Compatibility and Collation. Regulation of Multiple Activities in Offshore Windfarm Zones

Professor Richard Barnes, Law School, University of Hull

11.30 Safety on Offshore Platforms in the Wake of the Deepwater Horizon Incident

Dr Seline Trevisanut, Netherlands Institute for the Law of the Sea, University of Utrecht

12.00 Discussion

13.00 Lunch

Attendance is free; places are limited. Please email Irimi.papanicolopulu@glasgow.ac.uk to register.